• Terms and Conditions:

A refund is only provided if the course is already full or if the course is cancelled. Booking cannot be transferred to another workshop date.

Covid-19 – If I, the course tutor, have to cancel due to a CV-19 lockdown, illness or quarantine I will offer a pro-rata refund or postponement to a future date. As a self-employed artist currently trying to sustain my business during these difficult times, I am unable to offer full refunds to students who are unable to attend due to CV-19 illness or quarantine status.

I am happy for the workshop place being offered to a friend or family member who is able to fully attend the workshop. Or if this is not possible I am happy to offer a rescheduled date to a future workshop date due to Covid-19 on one occasion only, within the timeframe of 7 months from original workshop date.
